Kennesaw, GA (January 17, 2017) – Reports of kids waiting around the block for the next shipment of those deliciously scented plush backpack clips are coming in from around the nation! Plus they pass the smell test – from popcorn to gingerbread.

These plushy pals with familiar aromas successfully launched two years ago at American International Toy Fair. New for 2017 is the two-phase roll out of eleven Series 4 characters. Kids might start with Howie Rolls, a cinnamon roll, in mid-February and end with Mikey Milkshake, a sweet chocolate shake, by early April. Stop and smell all the new personalities at the Whiffer Sniffers Booth 2953.

Remember when Dad collected baseball cards and Mom searched for the next Happy Meals giveaway? The joy was in the hunt. Today’s kids are equally going crazy for accumulating Whiffer Sniffers. This time they can carry, share and show off the scented plush at the bus stop or the lunch room. For kids on an allowance or holding on to Christmas cash, hunting then finding the next character for their collection is priceless. That’s a memorable experience for just $6.99!

It’s not just kids shopping the toy store but grownups heating up the secondary market by searching on eBay or Amazon! Frequent retirements, limited editions, and super rare characters add to the excitement of the search and the jump in value. This week prices ranged from $21.75 for a Mystery Pack Huey Gooey to $43.99 for Super Rare Bitsy Bubbles Sniffer, both offered on eBay!

The Original Whiffer Sniffers™ impressed not only tweens and eBay searchers but also toy industry experts. For their first full year in stores and online, the pleasingly plush brought home the 2016 Creative Child Product of The Year, 2016 Tillywig Sterling Fun Award and the 2016 Toy Insider Top Holiday Toys. Parent company Bearington Collection, a family owned and operated business, is known for creating award winning products that are also affordable. Whiffer Sniffers continue the family trend!

Since Whiffer Sniffers launched less than two years ago, the line has been a social sensation with over 14 million views YouTube, more than 18,500 followers on Instagram and multiple toy industry awards. The fragrant collectibles were even featured in the 2016 Top Toy Trend by the Toy Industry Association (TIA). The TIA praised the series for encouraging childhood skills such as negotiation, patience, perseverance, opened-ended play and organization! Their YouTube Coveted Collectibles clip can be seen at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DIydmgg8koc&feature=youtu.be&t=17m8s.

“Bitsy Berry gives off a delicious strawberry scent. Freddy Frosted looks like a chocolate donut brought to life and smells like one, too,” says a review by Tillywig Toy Award judges. “Part of Whiffer Sniffers’ appeal stems from the way various characters’ kooky, colorful visual appeal and often hilarious names tickle kids' funny bones. One of our favorites in the bunch was Kaumana Wanna Smelya, the surfing pineapple. The list goes on -- Tony Pepperoni, Tangerina Ballerina, the popcorn scented I. B. Poppin, and several other smile-inducing characters.”

Available at a kid-friendly price tag, the Whiffer Sniffers clips quickly become collectibles as each Series is rolled out and styles are retired. Series 1 contained 12 different characters. In 2017, 11 styles will be introduced in two phases, with 6 new styles available in mid-February including Sour Saul, a sour apple and Izzy Sodalicious, a fizzy grape soda. Then in early April, Series 4, Part 2 collectibles hit store shelves or can be found online at WhifferSniffers.com.

Kids and parents who click on their colorful website will find some freebies such as craftable accessories, games and coloring sheets! Whiffer Sniffers social media pages showcase or tweet the newest offerings. Their Facebook page might tempt mom with a giveaway such as their prize pack of Kris Krumble, Peppermint Paukie and Doughy Dave Holiday 2016 Contest. Their Instagram page offers weekly drawings and is packed with Whiffer Sniffer pictures and drawings shared by fans.

A core product offering for fans of Whiffer Sniffers is their Mystery Packs. As their website explains, “some specially packaged backpack clip sized Whiffer Sniffers are rare editions and are available only in their own mystery package. Inside each mystery package you will find: either the rare special edition character that is pictured on the outside of its mystery package (lucky you!) or one of the other awesome regularly sold Whiffer Sniffer characters. If you’re super lucky you might find one of the super rare gold bag Sniffer Mixes. What do you do if you open the package and you find a Whiffer Sniffer inside that you already have in your collection? Trade it with a friend of course!”
