2017 Collection

Haffy is proud to announce our new 2017 collection of doll strollers by DeCuevas Toys of Spain. Fun, stylish and well-built, little mommies will love the new collection of traditional and contemporary designs.

The 2017 collection is very versatile and includes the brand-new release of smaller options, "My First Stroller", to larger strollers that accommodate bigger dolls. The strollers fit dolls between 12 to 22 inches.

The collection includes strollers, prams and 3 X 1 models that can be played with three different ways. Handle heights range from 22 to 35 inches.

Features include foldable canopy, nice accessories that match stroller design and handles with adjustable height.

Haffy is an authorized distributor for Muñecas Antonio Juan, which are dolls entirely manufactured in Onil, Spain. Antonio Juan has a long heritage of craftsmanship which is reflected in their products. Smooth features, happy and engaging faces and artisan quality are the hallmarks of this brand.

Shipping is available to entire United States including Hawaii and Alaska. All products are ASTM compliant. For more information please contact us at haffykids@gmail.com or maria@haffykids.com.
